

Dear Porsche Club South Africa - Central members,

The Annual Concours will be held on the rain postponed date of Sunday the 30th September 2012, at the African Pride Irene Country Lodge, 391 Nellmapius Drive, Irene.

Our theme this year is Porsche Fascination, which is backed up by the venue, with beautiful lawns and a super entertainment area which will allow everyone an enjoyable and relaxed time.

This year there will be Four Categories in which members can participate:-

D'Etat

Cars here are judged on exterior, engine bay, luggage area, wheel arches, interior, inspection of the left wheel off the car and the car jacked up for inspection of the left wheel arch. The tools and spare wheel have to be displayed, originality is of the utmost importance. Judges will be using their white gloves to check for cleanliness.

D'Elegance

Cars in this category are judged on exterior, engine bay, luggage area, wheel arches and interior. Please look at your score sheet. Originality does not count.

D'Excellence

Cars are judged as tops only. The same exterior, engine bay, luggage area and interior.

Race and Rally

These cars will be judged on exterior, interior if any and engine bay. Cars must have raced or participated in Time Trials during the past 3 months.

There will be the traditional ladies choice.

Score Sheets can be downloaded from www.porscheclubofsouthafrica.co.za Please read the judging sheet pertaining to the category that you enter to familiarise yourself with the scoring criteria.

On entering Irene Country Lodge, please follow the sign boards. There are certain areas which are restricted to participants only. The Paddock area will be allocated to all visitors.
